Dear Portfolio Show Visitor,

As an award-winning filmmaker and artist who has been developing my craft over the last 8 years, I can finally say with confidence that I am ready for a new challenge that will test my skills and allow me to share my vision with you and the world.

Something that I believe sets me apart from other creators is my ongoing intention to create purpose in everything I make. I believe as artists we have a responsibility to the masses to not only produce high-quality work that advances the art form, but also engages the viewer in a way that pushes them to grow as human beings. In a world that is filled with so much negativity and separation, I feel that it is my life's work to spread peace and balance through the things I create. I know everything can't be sunshine and roses, though I do enjoy these things; I want to help be a voice for change—a signal in the noise of it all.

With the great power that comes from creativity, also comes great responsibility. And with great responsibility, comes great opportunities—I am so excited that my journey has brought me to this moment in time. I look forward to connecting with you and your team to discuss how I can bring my forward-thinking mindset and developed skillset to your organization. The ideals I've discussed are only ideals until we use our strengths to act upon them... so let's create with intention together.

With peace and appreciation,
